The facts of the case are clearly set forth in the Dt Magtes letter No 503 of 16th October 1903 submitted by the Inspector Genl of Prisons —

The Dt Magte is of opinion that the Amildar Magte is solely responsible for the overdetention by one day, of the prisoner referred to and the Inspector General of Prisons agrees with the Dt Magte.

The Amildar Magistrate's explanation is that the above result happened on account of the mistake of the Police in forwarding the warrant to Letter No. 1212 of the 24 Oct. 1903 from the Dept. General of Prisons, forwarding Order Letter No. 503 of the 16th Oct. 1903 from the Dt. Magte of Madura, reporting the circumstances connected with the over detention by one day of a prisoner named Dasa, who had been sentenced by the Addl. Magte of Koppa to 3 days Rigorous Impt. on the 25 August 1903.

Order thereon 997 of 14-11-03

From a perusal of the papers in this case, including the Addl. Magte's explanation, it is observed that the responsibility for the over detention of the prisoner by a day rests clearly with that Officer. He should either have arranged for the prisoner's employment in the Koppa Local Up, [illegible] the Gudalli Lock-up together with the warrant for his confinement in that Lock-up.

I have sent the warrant to the Judicial Magistrate Uthoppa, and the prisoner to Gudalli, with an Ordinary acknowledgment, which the Magistrate will trace. The explanation furnished by the Amildar Magistrate (Mr B. M. Venkatadriya) is not satisfactory, & he should be informed that for neglect he should have acted so carelessly in this matter.

The roundabout procedure adopted by the Magistrate discloses a want of ordinary forethought
